

Please keep the no call list in effect for all companies. Having spent a complete 8 hours on the phone each day dealing with customers I really do not want to be bothered by a person selling credit cards, etc in the evening.